

Apr 1878

May 20, 1837 - Nov 6, 1902

Jonathan Doan

Frontier trader & merchant; a Quaker, peaceable in troubled frontiers. With nephew C.F. Doan, came from Ohio and entered hide trade in Indian Territory (Okla.) 1874-75

In Apr 1878 opened trading post at Western Cattle Trail Crossing on Red River (12 mi NE). C.F. Doan moved down that fall to run post Jonathan Doan continued to trade on frontier. Doan's Store and the family were famous and respected among the Indians, the cattlemen, and frontiersmen